

Worksheet - With Answers

Answer the following:

Date: _____

Details

Q. 1 : What is the name for the heavenly bodies which orbit the Sun and are believed to originate in an area of our Solar System known as the Kuiper Belt?

Ans. : Comets

Img. :

Q. 2 : Amit is drawing a quadrilateral in which there is no right angle but all the sides are equal in length. What is he drawing?

Ans. : Rhombus

Img. :

Q. 3 : Santosh Sir is taking a Geography class. He is teaching about various geographical features. For illustration purposes, he shows the students a map of the Indian sub continent. Which geographical feature is he speaking about here?

Ans. : Peninsula

Img. :

Q. 4 : It is the purest form of carbon and the hardest known naturally occurring mineral. What are we talking about?

Ans. : Diamond

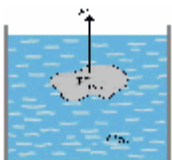

Img. :

Q. 5 : This phenomenon was first discovered by ancient Greek physicist Archimedes. It is the force which enables boats and ships to stay afloat without sinking. What are we talking about?

Ans. : Buoyancy

Img. :

Q. 6 : In a geometry class, students are asked about the largest chord of a circle. What do you think should be their reply?

Worksheet - With Answers

Answer the following:

Date: _____

Details

Ans. : Diameter

Img. :

